CONDITIONS OF CARRIAGE

LAW AND JURISDICTION CLAUSE

The contract evidenced by or contained in this Bill of Lading is governed by the laws of Switzerland, without regard to the conflict of law provisions thereof. Any claim or dispute whatsoever arising under or in connection with this Bill of Lading shall in any event be determined exclusively by the competent courts of Basel-Stadt, Switzerland, and by no other court.

1. INTRODUCTORY CLAUSE

The Carrier hereby certifies that, on the face of this Bill of Lading, the party named as the Consignee has been designated as such in the corresponding freight forwarder's receipt, and has been in receipt of the Bill of Lading.

2. DEFINITIONS

A. "Bill of Lading" means the document evidencing the contract of carriage and the receipt for the Goods by the Carrier, a copy of which is attached hereto.

B. "Carrier" means the person or company specified in the Bill of Lading as engaged in the transport of the Goods.

C. "Consignee" means the person or company to whom the Goods are consigned as set forth on the face of the Bill of Lading, and who has the right to receive the Goods as provided herein.

D. "Goods" means any and all items or things which the Carrier is or may be contracted to transport, whether or not the Goods are actually delivered to the Consignee.

E. "Incoterms" means the Incoterms 2020, published by the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC).

F. "Shippers" means only those persons or companies specified in the Bill of Lading as engaged by the Carrier in the transport of the Goods, and may be variously designated as "Shipper," "Shipper's Order" or "Consignor," as set forth on the face of the Bill of Lading.

3. NEGOTIABILITY AND TITLE TO THE GOODS

A. The Goods have been or are to be delivered to the Consignee in their original package, with the exception of any custom, health or sanitary requirements which may at any time be imposed by any Government or duly authorized representative thereof, and in the condition in which the Goods are described on the face of the Bill of Lading.

B. The Carrier shall have no obligation to negotiate the Bill of Lading, but the Consignee shall have the right to sell or otherwise dispose of the Goods, and the Carrier shall have no role in such transactions.

C. The Carrier shall have no role in any procedures or actions concerning the Goods, including, but not limited to, the sale, consignment, consignment, or any other similar transaction.

D. The Carrier shall have no role in any procedures or actions concerning the Goods, including, but not limited to, the sale, consignment, consignment, or any other similar transaction.
